
ROADRUNNER REVIEW

News and Highlights - Week of 5/7/2018

Dear Roadrunner Families –

A lot of good news to celebrate this week - Miss Angelica Gonzales, our Site Leader of Success Club, is a top three finalist in all of Fresno County for after-school program management. If you don't know "Miss G," you are missing out! She is an amazing educator, manager, and beloved favorite with our students. We are so proud of her. Congratulations Miss G!

A big shout-out to third-grader Ashley Garcia for her advancement to the Valley Track finals this coming Saturday. She is a top runner in these finals that include schools from Modesto to Bakersfield. GOOD LUCK ASHLEY! Beep Beep!

Our biggest celebration is a bittersweet one. Our very own Mrs. BJ Henry has been selected as the new Administrative Assistant to Dr. Sharon Uyeno, Administrator of ELA and Social Science in Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment at the Clovis Unified district office. While we are heartbroken to lose such an incredible Roadrunner and the very heart of our school, we are also excited for her opportunity and advancement. No one deserves it more! Congratulations BJ...or should we say, congratulations to Dr. Uyeno for choosing the most awesome assistant in CUSD.

STATE TESTING starts next week. Remember, a good night's sleep, a healthy breakfast with protein (like an egg or protein shake), and being on time will help your students show what they know and dig deep for the score. We can do it, Roadrunners!!
We rock!!

Jr. Fresno Relays Championship

On Saturday, three of our track athletes Landon Wright, Samuel Dresick and Ashley Garcia gave it their all and ran in the Junior Fresno Relays Championships. Ashley medaled in the 100 meter (2nd place) and the 200 meters (4th place) also advancing to the Valley Championships this Saturday at Buchanan. I was very proud of all their efforts. Way to represent Nelson and Clovis Unified.
