News and Highlights - Week of 10/10/2016

Faster, Higher, Stronger – Clovis West

The Clovis West AVID program has been approved for certification once again by the AVID Center. Clovis West was commended for the program year plans which included elementary reading buddies, game days, senior center dinners, the annual Blood Drive and Toys for Tots.

Clovis West and EECU celebrated the full-service credit union branch located on the Clovis West campus along with the CTE pathway which gives students an opportunity to gain real world work experience as well as explore career opportunities. Clovis West was joined by members of Clovis and Fresno Chambers of Commerce, CUSD board members, EECU representatives, and media outlets. This groundbreaking program was celebrated with a ribbon cutting, pep band and cheerleading performance, as well as tours of the branch by the students. Come visit EECU at Clovis West for your credit union needs.

Finally on Friday, September 23rd Clovis West celebrated its annual football feeder night which included cheerleaders, football players and marching band members from Kastner, Fort Washington, Lincoln, Liberty, Maple Creek, Nelson, Pinedale, and Valley Oak along with the Golden Eagles. Cheerleaders from all schools cheered on the sidelines and both cheerleaders and marching band members participated in a special halftime performance. Clovis West came out victorious with a win over Bullard on this special night.
