

ROADRUNNER REVIEW

News and Highlights - Week of 11/7/2016

Clovis West Accolades

Clovis West Marching Band took 1st place in their class, received the all class caption award, Best General Effect caption and 1st place overall at the Bands of America Regional at San Jose State.

All five of the Clovis West Girls Basketball Seniors have been offered Division 1 college scholarships. These athletes will be signing in November with these schools: Danae Marquez (former Nelson Roadrunner) - San Jose State, Megan Anderson - San Jose State, Bre'yanna Sanders - Arizona State, Sarah Bates - UC Santa Barbara, Tess Amundsen - Boise State.

Clovis West Girls Golf and Girls Tennis won TRAC team titles. Girls Tennis finished the TRAC season a perfect 10-0, which earned them the #1 seed for the upcoming section play-offs. Girls Golf earned their 11th consecutive TRAC title and Area Championships.

Remember to always sign in the front office and get a badge before walking anywhere on campus. If you are seen on the property without a badge, you will be asked to report to the office. Also, you must have a volunteer form on file before you can volunteer in the classroom, chaperone field trips, work in the snack bar, etc.

The Fall Elementary Choral Festival is coming up on Monday, November 7. Our Nelson Concert Choir will be performing and we would encourage you to come out and support the Choir and hear our performance! Our session begins at 12:50 and Nelson performs at 1:10, and again with the CW area elementary schools at 1:35. Singers are to wear a Nelson spirit shirt (or school colors), jeans and tennis shoes to school on Monday morning. We will be eating lunch early so a sack lunch is encouraged.

The Festival will take place at the Paul Shaghoian Concert Hall at the Performing Arts Center (Clovis North High School on Chestnut and International).

The Choir has been working very hard and we hope you can make it!
